

Stop, collaborate and listen...or something like that. All of us can think back to our favorite one hit wonders. The group that had that one big hit and were never heard from again. Did you know there are similar stories in the Bible? During this series we will be looking at a number of stories where someone who shows up just once in the Bible, plays a big role in the story God is writing. We invite you to consider, that you could make a significant impact in God's story too.
